

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME 100 YEARS OF INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVICE

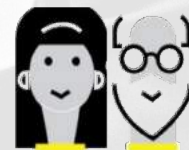

November 21st, 17:45-21.00

La Pastorale, Route de Ferney 106, 1202 Geneva

Greycells

Association of Former International Civil Servants
for Development

INTERGENERATIONAL DIALOGUE

17:45 – 18:00

Welcome and registration of participants, distribution of survey results.

18:00 – 18:10

Introduction of the representative of the Swiss Press Club who will moderate the panels and by Alejandro Bonilla García, President of Greycells, and presentation of the results of the surveys.

18:10 – 18:20

Presentation of the book "Eric Drummond and His Legacies. The League of Nations and the Beginnings of Global Governance". Palgrave, 2019, by John Burley, co-author of the book.

18:20 – 19:20

Panel 1: Neutrality, independence, impartiality of the ICS. 100 years of success and failure. Individual experiences of serving and retired civil servants. Discussion with the public.

19:20 – 20:20

Panel 2: What to do to support and strengthen the ICS in the current international context to defend the role of multilateralism? Practical and realistic suggestions. Discussion with the public.

20:20 – 21:00

Final reflections by Manuela Tortora, Vice President of Greycells and conclusions by the President of Greycells
Continuation of the discussion around a buffet and a glass of wine

The debate will take place in English and French, depending on the preferences of the speakers. A summary and/or video of the debate will be distributed by Greycells and partner institutions. Participation is free and open to anyone interested.

UNOG
THE UNITED NATIONS
OFFICE AT GENEVA

